

Print Perspectives

Streamline, simplify, and save.

The FedEx Office nationwide commercial print network helps customers compete more effectively. We take a different approach to print to help you save time and distribution costs. Plus, we can help increase your speed to market to help give you a competitive edge.

Here's why it works.

We print at 19 commercial print production facilities	~2,100 FedEx Office locations nationwide	Using 12K digitally connected printers
Harnessing the expertise of 14K print professionals	140+ hotel and convention center operations	40+ years of print experience

Here's how it works.

The traditional way:

You print materials in a central location, then distribute the physical copies.

The FedEx Office way:

We distribute files digitally, then print them near where you need them.

And on top of that...

We process an average of 1M print jobs a month

- ✓ 12M per year
- ✓ 229K per week
- ✓ Up to 3K file uploads per hour
- ✓ With an average turnaround time of 22 hours
- ✓ And a 99.8% error-free rate
- ✓ Totaling over 11M square feet of print annually

Focus on what's important to your business and let us handle the hassles. You'll have a dedicated print professional to answer all your questions and personally oversee your job — from start to finish. Sound like a plan? Learn more at fedex.com/intheknow.
