

Industry
CEO

We're not in the business of training new hires...
...cost too much, and don't have the time!
We need engineers to hit the ground running...

Are you such an institution?

Well, Are you?

Find me an outfit that's serious about partnering with industry and has the curriculum to back it!

I need 28,000 engineering graduates within the next 5-8 years...

Are you that institution?
